Case: 1:17-cr-00201
Assigned To : Judge Jackson, Amy Berman
Assign. Date : 10/27/2017
Description: INDICTMENT (B)

MOTION FOR SEALING OF THE INDICTMENT, WARRANTS, THE INSTANT
MOTION AND TO DELAY ENTRY ON THE PUBLIC DOCKET OF
THE FILING OF THIS MOTION TO SEAL AND ALL RELATED MATTERS

The United States of America, by and through Special Counsel Robert S. Mueller III, respectfully moves this Court to seal the accompanying Indictment, arrest warrants, and the instant motion to seal, and to delay entry on the public docket of this motion to seal and all related matters until at least one of the defendants named in the indictment is in custody. In the support of this motion, the government states as follows:

The defendants in this case have been indicted for conspiracy against the United States, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 371; money laundering conspiracy, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1956(h);

FBAR offenses (failing to report foreign bank and financial accounts), 31 U.S.C. §§ 5314 and 5322(b)); acting as unregistered agents of a foreign principal, in violation of the Foreign Agent Registration Act (FARA), 22 U.S.C. §§ 612 and 618; making false and misleading statements in documents furnished to the Attorney General under FARA, in violation of 22 U.S.C. § 618(a)(2); and making material false statements to the government, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1001(a), as well as aiding and abetting various offenses in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 2.

Law enforcement believes that publicity resulting from disclosure of the Indictment and related materials on the public record will increase the defendants' incentive to flee and destroy (or tamper with) evidence. It is therefore essential that any information concerning the defendants' facing a pending indictment in this district be kept sealed for the time being.

Accordingly, the government submits that under Washington Post v. Robinson, 935 F.2d 282, 289 n.10 (D.C. Cir. 1991), these facts present an extraordinary situation and a compelling governmental interest that justifies not only the sealing of the Indictment and all other pleadings, warrants, records, and files in this case, but also a short delay in the public docketing of these sealed pleadings and the accompanying order until further order of the Court.

A proposed order accompanies this motion.

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT S. MUELLER III
Special Counsel
